The Ring of the Fallen.

👁 4 ✓ 0 ★ 1

Chapter 1 by Felix Hervey

My whole life i've heard of The Ring of the Fallen, how it grants its wearer the capabilities to bring the dead back from the second realm. My mother told me it was only to be used to learn from the mistakes of the dead and to achieve wisdom from ancestors. But like any other God-forsaken thing in Tysina it comes for a price, a catch, payment. To bring one from the second realm one must enter it. For life the payment is death. Even though one may only leave the second realm for two moons, the one who pays, is trapped for eternity.

My Pa told me the ring is the reason we live in the mud houses. All because of a mad king and his thirst to be the ruler of the dead and the living, but what he doesn't know wont hurt him. I have The Ring of the Fallen. Though there is another legend about the ring, if the creature that pays has a heart with no darkness only purity, the dead may take their place in life, and live out the person they swapped with life. I intend to use it for one thing and one thing only.

To bring back my mother from the dead. I have not committed an evil deed in my existence. Only my mother can save the world of Tysina from what is coming. For I have seen, seen the future where all is burning and dead, but I know my mother was the high mage for the king a long time ago. Only she may save us.

Save us from the man in the burning world.
